

The University of East Anglia's Film Archive (EAFA) and The Forum Mash-Up filmmaking competition

Terms and Conditions

Eligibility

- The competition is open to everyone, however, if you have any connection to The University of East Anglia (including EAFA) or The Forum Trust Ltd. you are required to state such when entering.
- There is a limit of one entry per person

The 'Competition Package'

- The Competition Package will be sent out via file transfer upon receipt of a signed copy of this form. Please note that files will only be provided in Mpeg 4 format, and that submissions must also be in this format.
- At least 50% of your new film must be made up of excerpts from the Competition Package. There are no restrictions surrounding the number of excerpts you use.

Usage, rights and licences

- All rights in the material provided in the 'Competition Package' remain with The University of East Anglia and its licensors.
- In submitting your competition entry, you (the Competitor) hereby assign to the University of East Anglia with full title guarantee by way of present and future assignment all Intellectual Property Rights in and to the new production free from all liens, charges and encumbrances together with all rights of action accrued in relation to the Intellectual Property rights in the new production including, without limitation, the right to take proceedings and recover damages in respect of infringement of Intellectual Property Rights in the new production.
- The Competitor hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives to the fullest extent permitted by law all moral rights he/she may have in respect of the new production, including any rights under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended, and all similar rights in any other part of the world.

- The Competitor agrees to do all such acts and things and sign and execute all such documents and deeds which may be required to perfect, protect or enforce any of the rights or interests in the Intellectual Property Rights assigned to University of East Anglia pursuant to this assignment.
- The Competitor will further provide all such information and other assistance as may reasonably be required for the purpose of making any application for protection of such rights, prosecuting, maintaining and enforcing the same.
- Competitors may not use any material obtained from the 'Competition Package' for any usage other than submitting an entry to the Mash Up film making Competition. Competitors agree to destroy all copies of such content immediately after submitting their entry.
- We would be delighted for film or audio external to the 'competition package' to be incorporated in to the competition entry; in submitting your competition entry, competitors are confirming that, they have acquired all necessary permissions in respect of the use of such material. For example if using 'Creative Commons' material, then competitors must ensure they have the correct licence and attributions (see www.creativecommons.org). The University of East Anglia and The Forum Trust Ltd. will not be held liable for any omissions or inaccuracies by the competitor in regard to this.
- Competitors are reminded that they must have a licence for any editing software used to create their competition entry, unless using free editing software (links to which will be provided as part of the competition package)

Credits

- We ask that competitors include a credit page at the end of their submitted production, listing which films from the competition package have been used. In instances when external material is used, competitors are required to credit the original creators of the film/music and state the source.
- Please note that as part of the processing of submissions we will be relying on your clear use of credits and attributions, failure to comply may result in your disqualification.
